Children's Summer Camp 2009

Discover something old... and something NEW!

The University of New Mexico

The Maxwell Museum is located on the campus of the University of New Mexico, just north of M.L. King Jr. Ave on Redondo Drive. Parking is available in the museum's west parking lot for pick up and drop off.

Drop off time: 8:45 am – 9:00 am
Pick up time: 3:45 pm – 4:00 pm

Children are required to bring a lunch and drink each day, and wear proper shoes for active programming. Additional items such as hats, jackets and sunscreen are needed for field trips.

What we're all about!

Maxwell Museum's Children's Summer Camp takes children around the world and back in time in just a week! Enjoy a variety of themed educational programs for individual days or register for a full week of adventure!

Themed days are as follows:

Monday: (June 15 or July 13)

“Music From Around the World”

Tuesday: (June 16 or July 14)

“Skulls & Skills”

Wednesday: (June 17 or July 15)

“Making A Living the Ancient Way”

Thursday: (June 18 or July 16)

“Spanish Colonial Life and Arts”

(includes a field trip to El Rancho de las Golondrinas near Santa Fe!)

Friday: (June 19 or July 17)

“Archaeology”

(includes an archaeology field trip.)
