Gifted Kids Have Hormones Too:

Surviving the Mid-School Years with Your Gifted Child

Mina Doshier, retired APS gifted teacher, will present an overview of intellectual, social, and physical characteristics of the middle school adolescent, examine the emotional and social development of sixth-eighth grade children, and provide practical strategies to help parents cope when puberty strikes their precious Aristotle or Orphelia.

Ms. Doshier taught middle school language arts/literature for 35 years. She holds a bachelor's degree in education, a master's in gifted education, and a Golden Apple Award.
